Elaine Davis was a long-time member of the TC Rebels who loved Snickers and to dance West Coast Swing. She was also a mother, author and teacher who made the most of every moment of her too-short life. In her 59 years, Davis authored two books on Minnesota life and history, visited 80 countries and taught for a quarter of a century at St. Cloud State University. She leaves behind the legacy of an exuberant life lived with purpose, curiosity and joy.

This dance is made possible by a bequest from Elaine.
